Facebook — Why 'I'm Young and Healthy' May Be the Best Reason to Act Now

Waiting until later to get disability insurance can cost more than you'd expect. Individual disability policies are medically underwritten, meaning the terms you receive reflect your health at the time you apply — and conditions that develop after a policy is in force are generally already covered. For physicians and dentists early in their careers, good health isn't a reason to wait. It's an asset worth locking in now.
